Subject: RE: ERPLT Log - Freedom 2022 Convoy Friday February 4 2022

At 15:21hrs Plt Wierzbicki spoke with Dan Bulford. Bulford advised he is expecting things to ramp up this weekend with the discussions of counter demonstrations in the city. He advised the group does have concerns about some of the counter groups and Antifa attending but that they have been instructing members of the convoy since day one to move away, call police, find shelter, and film for evidence if possible if they encounter any of these groups. He advised the truckers are working hard to win over support from the city and continue to clean up garbage and protect the monuments, etc.

Plt advised Bulford of the messaging delivered to the group at Confederation Park in relation to moving the wooden structure. Bulford advised that group appears to be more involved with James Bauder and the Canada Unity group and that in his opinion they have been separated from the trucker convoy for some time. Based on his observations the organizers in the Truck CP are not interested in fame and notoriety as those involved in the other group like Pat King and James Bauder. He advised he was aware of the issues caused by Pat King and the Indigenous ceremonies already held at Confederation Park. He further advised that the two Grandmother's travelling with Tamara have acknowledged that mistakes were made in relation to the ceremonies and were working towards meeting with representatives from the Algonquin Leadership in order to make things right. Bulford does not believe the Confederation Park group would have much support from the trucking convoy community should they choose to disregard the wishes of the host nation and action was required to remove the structure.

Guillaume/Rte 200 - PLT called [redacted] who is running the staging area at the 200/Guillaume and was aware PLT attended yesterday and felt things were different. He felt that mask wearing was not a law and many had medical exemptions. No need to go into town for any supplies as they are self-sufficient. [redacted] advised that if store owners did not want to serve them could refuse. They have no plans for upcoming convoys but promised to call if they do plan in the future. PLT reiterated rules of the rule and safety; they will continue to work with PLT and appreciative of the open communication and that they are committed to their cause for the long run with no exit plan.

Subject: RE: ERPLT Log - Freedom 2022 Convoy Friday February 4 2022

As per Sgt Hampson information from yesterday's log pertinent for today's awareness:

PLT Dubois received a call from [redacted] of East Coast Convoy who said that his day went fine but had a few issues. He was very disappointed and angry with the visit of [redacted] attending Parliament Hill, and the burning of the Canadian flag. He said his group was not supportive of her and were disassociating from her agenda, and it is a hard task to distance their group from such radical groups or persons. PLT reminded him the importance of getting their message out and then removing their group as quickly from PH to avoid such regrettable incidents to which he agreed. He heard rumours of the army standing by in Petawawa. PLT reiterated previous discussion about the media article from CBC and that the messaging was by the Chief in response to the media as the army being a possible option. His group sent out a media release at 1300hrs with a clear message stating their position. Also advised that today they gave $7,000 of goods to the Shepherds of Good Hope and also $800 of food from Costco and that this was important for him. PLT inquired on his position of safety an he said that he was worried as the "Arc Hotel", where he is staying, had received threats from possibly Antifa(believes they are angry since they have been distancing themselves).

As [redacted] called PLT it was asked about the fact that the group does not want police talking to them anymore and to negotiate with their lawyer instead [redacted] dismissed this saying that it made no sense and he was not on board with that idea. He believed that we needed to talk on a regular basis to make sure small and larger issues and situations can be addressed and he was not the only one at the helm; this is a group effort and that he was going to speak to the group about this. He added he would still call me and give me updates and/or share concerns and good things going on at the protest. He believed thing were going well in the group and they are holding regular meetings. I asked him about if he had started to plan an exit strategy. Mentioned that they were going to plan and talk about this but did not have any idea of when and how yet.

Don't really know how much weight [redacted] has on the group as a whole. But he seems to be very reasonable and open for communication.

* OPS PLT advise that convoy leaders/organizers have told them police are not to contact them directly any longer and have directed them to call their lawyer Eva Chipiuk [redacted]. OPP PLT will continue outreach until we are advised otherwise.

In regards to engaging with the lawyer ER PLT's messaging is ready to go when directed to reach out:

- Ascertain if she is acting officially in her legal council role or as a demonstrator. If legal, does she have a temporary permit to practise in Ontario?
- Police don't negotiate with Lawyers for demonstrations + must be able to communicate with organizers for public safety reasons.
- Have the core organizer group agreed to this?
- Request written directive to this effect with name and contact info
